

THE
S P E E C H
AND CARRIAGE

OF

Stephen Colledge,

&c.

High-Sheriff

M

R. Colledge, It is desired for the satisfaction of the World, because you have profest your self a Protestant, that you Would tell what Judgment you are of,

Colledge, Dear People, Dear Protestants,

Dear Countrey-men, I have been Accused and Convicted for Treason; the Laws adjudge me to this Death, and I come hither willingly to submit to it: I pray God forgive all those persons that had any hand in it. I do declare to you, whatever hath been said of me, I was never a Papist, or ever that way enclined; they have done me wrong, I was ever a Protestant, I was born a Protestant, I have lived so, and so by the Grace of God I will dye, of the Church of England, according to the best Reformation of the Church from all Idolatry, from all Superstition, or any thing that is contrary to the Gospel of our Blessed Lord and Saviour,

I do declare I was never in any Popish Service. Prayers or Devotions in my life, save one time about some 17 or 18 yeares ago, as near as I remember, I was out of a Curiosity one Afternoon at St. James's Chappel, the Queens Chappel, at St. James's except that one time I never did hear any Popish Service, anything of the Church of Rome, Mass or Prayers, or any thing stay in your Lordship's House above Nine or Ten days : for though he do us Service by a general Recantation, yet we can never think him till we have got him into the Inquisition : for such persons are to be raged, not trusted. So upon this his Lordship sent a Complement to Lords in the Tower, and so we came away,

A

Thomas Dangerfield.

Jurat vicesimo die.

Octobris, 1680.

Coram nobis

Will. Roberts.

Will. Pulteney.

FINIS.

THE
P E E C H
AND CARRIAGE

OF
Stephen Colledge,
&c.

High-Sheriff

M

R. Colledge, It is desired for the satisfaction of the World, because you have profess your self a Protestant, that you would tell what Judgment you are of,

Colledge, Dear People, Dear Protestants,

Dear Countrey-men, I have been Accused and Convicted for Treason the Laws adjudge me to this Death, and I come hither willingly to submit to it: I pray God forgive all those persons that had any hand in this, I do declare to you, whatever hath been said of me, I was never a Papist, nor ever that way enclined; they have done me wrong, I was ever a Protestant, I was born a Protestant, I have lived so, and so by the Grace of God I will dye, of the Church of England, according to the best Reformation of the Church from all Idolatry, from all Superstition, or any thing contrary to the Gospel of our Blessed Lord and Saviour, I do declare I was never in any Popish Service, Prayers or Devotions in my life, save one time about some 17 or 18 yeares ago, as near as I remember, I was out of a Curiosity one Afternoon at St. James's Chappel, the kens Chappel, at St. James's except that one time I never did hear any Popish Service, anything of the Church of Rome, Mass or Prayers, or any thing thing else, Private or publick. I know you expect that I should say thing as to what I dye for: It hath been charged upon me, when I was apprehended and brought before the Council, some of the Council, the Sec-tary, and my Lord Killingworth, and Mr. Seymour, they told me there Treason sworn against me, truly they surprized me when they said so of all things in the World I thought my self as free from that as any I asked them if any man living had the confidence to swear Treason against me? They said several, three or four as I Remember: Then they told It was sworn against me, That I had a design to pull the King out of White hall: and to serve him as his Father was served, or to that purpose to Logger head his Father, or that kind of Language; I did deny it and do now deny it upon my death. I never was in any manner of Plot my days, neither one way nor another, never knew any such person nor ever had such communication with any man hitherto; I know Plot in the World but the Popish Plot, and that every man may know much as I; if I had had such a design as these men have sworn against to have seized his Majesty either at London, or this place at Oxford, I God to witness, as I am a dying man, and upon the terms of my Salvation I knew not any one man upon the face of the Earth that would have by me, and how likely it was that I should do such a thing my self, whole world judge.

Dugdale swears, That I spoke Treason to him, Treasonable words in Coffee-house, and in the Barbers shop by the Angel; even He could not tend to see me any where else; but it is false and a very unlikely thing I should speak Treason to him. I must confess I was in his company at Coffee-house, and that Barbers shop before I went out of Town: but could be no communication between us, for he was writing at one end the room, and eating a piece of Bread, and I lighted a Pipe of Tobacco the other end and took it, till Sir Thomas Player and Sir Robert Clayton to me, and we went to my Lord Lovelace's out of Town that night; So they came, we took Horse, and went out of Town with the rest; For part I can't sum up my Witnesses, I was under most strange circum-ces as ever any man was; I was kept Prisoner so close in 'the Tower, that could have no conversation with any, though I was certain the Peers Lords had it every day there, but I could have none; I could not tell Witnesses that were to swear against me; I could not tell what it was against me, for I could have no Copy of the Indictment, nor no possible to make any preparation to make my defence, as I ought to have done, and might have done by Law, had no liberty to do any thing, as I am a dying man. And as to what Dale, Smith, Turbervill and Heines swore against me, they did swear Treason that nothing but a mad man would ever have trusted any with; and least of all to Papists, every one of them that had been concerned with Plots and Treasons among their own party; and under the strictest ties and obligations of Damnation; and to be Sainted if they kept it secret, and to be Damned if they did reveal it. If these men will not keep secrets private for their own party, how could I trust them? I take God to witness, and do freely acknowledge, I have sought my God with tears several times to inform me, if so be I had with any word transgressed at any time. I knew not of any part of what they swore against me, till such time as I heard it sworn against me at the Bar.

This is very hard Gentlemen, but this is the Truth: and there be a great many other strange Reports that I have heard since I have been a Prisoner; that I should be a means to convert the Countess of Rocheſter, by bringing Thomson a Priest to her. Truly all that I was concerned in, was some 15 years ago. I lodged at Colonel Vernon's, that married the Lady Brooks; the family were Papists; The Brookes were Papists, and there was this Thompson, and I did suppose him a Priest, in the house, though I never saw him at Popish service or Worship, though I was there half a year, but coming afterwards to My Lord Rocheſters about some business I had to do for him, and several other persons of Quality; he sent for me one Afternoon from the Parsonage in Adderbury to his house, and his Lady and he stood together: He sent to me and asked me if my Horse were at home, said he, I could have you carry this Letter to Mr. Thompson, if you are at leisure this Afternoon: My Lord I am at leisure to serve you, so I took a Letter from his hand and his Ladies too as I remember (he made an offer that way) Sealed with his own Seal, and I carried it to Thompson and delivered it to him, he told me that he would wait upon my Lord, for it was for some Lands My Lord did offer to raise money for some occasion: this is the truth of that scandal.

It is said that I had a Priest several years in my house, viz: Sergeant that came over from Holland to discover: About some Ten years ago. that very thing else, Private or publick. I know you expect that I should say

 thing as to what I dye for: It hath been charged upon me, when I was apprehended and brought before the Council, some of the Council, the Sec-
 tary, and my Lord Killingworth, and Mr. Seymour, they told me there Treason sworn against me, truly they surprized me when they said so
 of all things in the World I thought my self as free from that as any I asked them if any man living had the confidence to swear Treason me? They said several, three or four as I Remember: Then they told It was sworn against me, That I had a design to pull the King out of ball: and to serve him as his Father was served, or to that purpose Logger head his Father, or that kind of Language; I did deny it and do now deny it upon my death. I never was in any manner of Plot
 my days, neither one way nor another, never knew any such person
 nor ever had such communication with any man hitherto; I know Plot in the World but the Popish Plot, and that every man may know
 much as I; if I had had such a design as these men have sworn against to have seized his Majesty either at London, or this place at Oxford, God to witness, as I am a dying man, and upon the terms of my Sentence I knew not any one man upon the face of the Earth that would have
 by me, and how likely it was that I should do such a thing my self whole world judge.

Dugdale swears, That I spoke Treason to him, Treasonable words Coffee-house, and in the Barbers shop by the Angel; even He could not
 tend to see me any where else; but it is false and a very unlikely thing I should speak Treason to him. I must confess I was in his company Coffee-house, and that Barbers shop before I went out of Town: but
 could be no communication between us, for he was writing at one end
 the room, and eating a piece of Bread, and I lighted a Pipe of Tobacco
 the other end and took it, till Sir Thomas Player and Sir Robert Clayton
 to me, and we went to my Lord Lovelace's out of Town that night; So they came, we took Horse, and went out of Town with the rest; For part I can't sum up my Witnesses, I was under most strange circum-ces as ever any man was; I was kept Prisoner so close in 'the Tower', could have no conversation with any, though I was certain the Lords had it every day there, but I could have none; I could not tell Witnesses that were to swear against me; I could not tell what it was

should say when I was Council, the d me there they said for hat as any Treason n they to g out of at purpose id deny it anner of such per
 ; I know
 may know orn again t Oxford
 f my Sa ould have my self le words e could no ikely thin company own: but g at one e of Tob rt Clayton t night; So ne rest; For ge circum
 e Tower, tain the P ould not hat it was are against me, for I could have no Copy of the Indictment, nor no possible to make any preparation to make my defence, as I ought to done, and might have done by Law, had no liberty to do any thing, as I am a dying man. And as to what dale, Smith, Turbervill and Heines swore against me, they did swear Treason that nothing but a mad man would ever have trusted any with; and least of all to Papists, every one of them that had been con-ed with Plots and Treasons among their own party; and under the rest ties and obligations of Damnation; and to be Sainted if they kept it , and to be Damned if they did reveal it. If these men will not keep s private for their own party, how could I trust them? I take God to eels, and do freely acknowledge, I have sought my God with tears fe-times to inform me, if so be I had with any word transgressed at any . I knew not of any part of what they swore against me, till such time heard it sworn against me at the Bar.

 This is very hard Gentlemen, but this is the Truth: and there be a great y other strange Reports that I have heard since I have been a Prisoner; I should be a means to convert the Countess of Rocheſter, by bringing Thomson a Priest to her. Truly all that I was concerned in, was some 15 years ago. I lodged at Colonel Vernon's, that married the Lady Brooks family were Papists; The *Brooks*es were Papists, and there was this Thomson, and I did suppose him a Priest, in the house, though I never saw at Popish service or Worship, though I was there half a year, but coming wards to My Lord Rocheſters about some business I had to do for him, several other persons of Quality; he sent for me one Afternoon from Parsonage in Adderbury to his house, and his Lady and he stood toge-: He sent to me and asked me if my Horse were at home, said he. I ould have you carry this Letter to Mr. Thompson, if you are at leisure this rnoon: My Lord I am at leisure to serve you, so I took a Letter from his and his Ladies too as I remember (he made an offer that way) Seal-with his own Seal, and I carried it to Thompson and delivered it to him, he told me that he would wait upon my Lord, for it was for some Lands Lord did offer to raise money for some occasion: this is the truth of that dal.

it is said that I had a Priest several years in my house, viz: Sergeant that he over from Holland to discover: About some Ten years ago. that very same man came to me, but was a stranger to me, and he came to me the name of Doctor Smith a Physician: and there was an Apothecary in Old-Bayly, and a Linnen Draper within Ludgate, that came with him, brought him thither and tooke a chamber and lay about half a year, or quarters at times, by the name of Dr. Smith, and as a Physician; this is truth of that and no otherwise. This is the entertainment of Sergeant.

So the occasion of my coming to Oxford I do say was voluntary, the Parliament men last Parliament at Westminster, and several Lords dined together the day before they fate the last Sessions of Parliament at Westminster sent for me to the Sun Tavern behind the Exchange, and when I came, Duke of Monmouth and several Lords were together, and I believe above Parliament men of the Commons; The Duke of Monmouth called me to him and told me he had heard a good report of me, and that I was an honest man and one that may be trusted; and they did not know but their Enemies the Papists might have some design to serve them as they did in King James time by Gun-powder, or any other way; And the Duke with several Lords and Commons did desire me to use my utmost skill in searching all Places suspected by them, which I did perform; and from thence I had as I think the Popular name of the Protestant Joyner, because they had intrusted me before any man in England to do that Office.

This same Heines, one of them that Swore against me, had discovered me and several others as to Macknamarra and his brother and this Ivey were now all of another stamp, that the Parliament was to be destroyed at Oxford, and that there was a design to murder my Lord Shaftsbury, by Fitzgerald and his party; and that they did endeavour to bring Macknamarra over to him, and said, then it would be well with him; and they would not be long before they had Shaftsburies life; and he made Depositions of this to Sir George Treby; as I heard afterwards, for I was not with him when he was Sworn. I wish the Commons of England as well as I wish my own heart; and I did not understand but when I served the Parliament, I served His Majesty too, and let them be miserable that make the difference between them, for my part I never did. I came to Oxford with my Lord Howart Whom I look upon to be a very honest worthy Gentleman, my Lord Clarendon my Lord Paget and my Lord Huntington, and Capt. Brown and Don Lewis were in my company, and came along with us, as they were my Lord Howards friends, Brown I have known I believe 2 or 3 months; but Lewis never ever saw before that day ; They said they came with my Lord Howard. I God to Witness, I never had one 6 d. or any thing else to carry on any sign ; and if it were to save my life now, I cannot charge any man in the world with any design against the Government, as God is my Witness, or against His Majesty, or any other person. As for what Arms I had, and what arms others had, they were for our own defence in case the Papists should make any attempt upon us by way of a Massacre, or any Invasion or Rebellion, that we should be ready to defend our selves ; God is my Witness, this is I know : If this be a Plot ; this I was in, but in no other, but never knew any numbers or times appointed for meeting ; but we have said one to another that the Papists had a design against the Protestants, when we did meet, as I was a man of general conversation ; and in case they should rise we were ready, but then they should begin the attempt upon us : This was my business, and is the business of every good Subject that loves the Laws of his Country and his King, For England can never hope to be happy under those blood-thirsty men, whose Religion is blood and murder, which I do with all my soul, and did ever since I knew what Religion was, abhor and detest, viz. the Church of Rome as pernicious and destructive to humane Societies and all Government.

I beseech God that every man of you may unite together as Protestants against this common Foe. Gentlemen it is my sense, and I do in that believe as certainly murdered by the hands of the Papists as Sir Edm. Bury Godsend himself was, though the thing is not seen : These Witnesses certainly are mercenary men, and I beseech God Almighty to have mercy upon their Souls and forgive them ; and either by his Judgments or mercies reclaim them, that they shed no more innocent blood : There is not a man of 'em that I know that ever heard me say or do any bit of Treason in my life : This is (the I may not say it is) but almost the 20th. Sham-plot that they have endeavoured to put upon the Nation, to delude the people and put off their own damnab'e Plot. This is not the first, but I think the 16 or 17. I pray God my blood may be the last ; I pray God defend every mans blood, and all Protestants in England from the hands of these bloody Papists, by whose hands I die this Death, and if they shall go on in this nature, I hope the good will open every mans eyes to see it before he feels it. And I beseech if you have any love for your King, your Country, and the Protestants, unite together if you are Protestants. I pray God those that deserve the name

name, let them be called how they will, either Dissenters or Church of England men, That they may unite together like men, like Christians, against the common foe, who will spare neither the one side nor the other, but bring you one against another like two Pitchers; the last that stands they will certainly destroy if they can. This is my sense and God's my Witness, I speak with my Conscience. I do not know Mr. Sheriff whether there be anything I have to say or no; we have a good God; and I beseech every man that hears me this day, (for we live in a sinful age, good people, and it behoves every one of you; it cannot be long before all that look upon me in this condition must lie down in the Dust, and God knows must come into an eternal State either for mercy or for judgment) I beseech you in the name of God, he is a God of mercy and a God of Patience and long suffering, that you would break off your sins by repentance, and serve a good God Who may be your friend at last, or else you are lost to Eternity.

O Lord, how ungrateful wretches are we that have a God of such infinite mercy and goodness, that affords us our life our health, and a thousand mercies every day; and we like ungrateful people, not deserving the name of Christians, live riotous lives in Debauchery, and swearing, in malice, and the like. I knowes how many evils: I beseech God that I may be this day a means in the hand of God, to bring some of their Souls over to him: I beseech you remember what I say; in deed I do not know, I have been so strangely used since I have been a prisoner, what to say: being brought from one affliction to another, that my body is worn out, and my memory and Intellects have failed me much to what they were: I can't remember what I have to say more, but that the Lord Jesus Christ would bless my Country, and preserve it from Popery and in mercy bless his Majesty, Good God be merciful to him, make him an Instrument in thy hand to defend his Protestant Subjects; Lord in mercy defend him from his enemies: Good God bless this People, good Lord continue the Gospel of Jesus Christ, thy Gospel in its purity to us and our Posterity, as long as the Sun and Moon endure. Lord save all that call upon thee, be merciful to all thy servants, all thy people that put their trust in thee: Good Lord deliver them from the hand of their Enemies: Good God, let their lives and bodies and souls be all precious in thy sight. O merciful God, put a stop to these most wicked Conspiracies of thy enemies and the nations enemies, the Papists. Let no more Protestant blood be shed, this of mine, I beseech thee O my God. O Lord look upon me, O Lord bless me; O good God receive me into thy blessed presence, by Jesus Christ my alone Saviour Redeemer, in whom alone I put my trust for Salvation: It is thee, O God I trust in, thou righteous Judge of Heaven and Earth, all Popery, all Idols, all Popes and Priests, all Dispensations I disown, and will not go out of my mouth with a Lye in my mouth: From the sinceritie of my heart I declare and will, that what I have said to you is the very sentiments of my Soul, as God will have mercy upon me, and to the best of my knowledg.

I desire the Prayers of you good people while I am here, and once more I beseech you to think upon Eternity every one of you that hear me this day. Th Lord turn your Hearts and Souls if you have been wicked livers; if you do live wicked lives, Lord in mercy convert you: and shew you your danger: for I as little thought I should come to this as any man that hears me this day; and I bless God I have no more served it from the hands of men than the Child that sucks at his mothers breast: I bless my God for it; and do say I have been a sinner against my God, Who hath bath learn'd me Grace ever since I have been a Prisoner. I bless my God in Prison, I bless my God for afflictions, I bless my God that ever I was released, for I never knew my self till he had taken me out of the world. Therefore I beseech you that have your liberties, and time and precious opportunities: be up and be doing for God and for your Souls, every one of you.

To his Son. Where is my dear Child? Sheriff. I made one request to you, and you gave me an imperfect Answer: I said you were of the best Reformed Church in the world, the Church of England according to the best Reformation in the world: I desire you for the satisfaction of the world to declare what Church that is, whether Presbyterian, or Independent or the Church of England, or what?

Colledge Good Mr. Sheriff, for your satisfaction: For twenty years and above I was under the Presbyterian Ministry till his Majesties Restoration; then I was conformable to the Church of England, when that was restored, and so continued till such time as I saw persecutions upon the dissenting people, and very many things don in their Meeting-places, then I went among them to know what of People those were: and I do take God to witness, since that time I have left their meetings, viz. the Presbyterians, others very seldom, and the Church of England. I did hear Dr. Tillotson not above three weeks before I was taken out of the Church of England as frequently as I heard the Dissenters: and never any prejudice, God is my witness against either, but always heartily desired that they might unite, and be Lovers and Friends, and I had no prejudice against any man; and truly I am afraid that it is not for the Nations good that there should ould be such heart-burnings between them: That some of the Church of England ill preach that the Presbyterians are worse than the Papists. God doth know that what I say, I speak freely from my heart, I have found many among them true serving God, and so I have of all the rest that have come into my company; men without any matter of design but to serve God, serve his Majesty, and keep their liberties and Properties; men that I am certain are not of vicious lives; I found no Damners or those kind of people among them, or at least few of them.

To his Son Kissing him several times with great passion. Dear Child Farewell The Lord have mercy upon thee. Good people, let me have your Prayers to God Almighty to receive my Soul.

And then he prayed; And as soon as he had done spake as followeth;

The Lord have mercy upon my Enemies, and I beseech you good people who are square, & the whole world that I have offended to forgive me, whom ever I have offended in word or deed, I aske every mans pardon, and I forgive the world with my soul; all the injuries I have received, and I beseech God Almighty forgive the poor wretches who have cast away their souls or at least endangered them tarding this body of mine: I beseech God that they may have a sight of their sins, and that they may find mercy at his hands: Let my blood speak the Justice of my cause.

I have done: and God have mercy upon you all.

To Mr. Crosshwait: Pray Sir my service to Dr. Hall, and Dr. Reynall, and thank them for all their kindnesses to me; I thank you Sir for your kindnesses: The Lord bless you all: Mr; Sheriff, God be with you; God be with you all good people.
The Executioner desired his pardon; And he said I do forgive you; The Lord have mercy on my soul;

FINIS.